

THE SOLAR ENTREPRENEUR'S HANDBOOK

This book brings together all the skills required to run a successful solar business in either a rural area or in a city. It is aimed at the person who wants to start a new renewable energy business in a developing country. It provides all the basic information required to get started. It also provides information on how to grow your business and to develop your technical skills and business skills further.

Contents

- Chapter 1 - How can Solar Energy Provide Service into Rural Areas
- Chapter 2 - Basic Design Principles for Solar Home Systems and the relationship with the customer
- Chapter 3 - System wiring, Planning an Installation & Installation of the System
- Chapter 4 - System Maintenance, faultfinding & Trouble shooting Guide
- Chapter 5 - Providing Small Solar Home Systems: Start of a Business
- Chapter 6 - What do I Need to Establish a Business
- Chapter 7 - Developing a Business Plan
- Chapter 8 - Building Relationships with Suppliers
- Chapter 9 - Where and How do I Raise Finance
- Chapter 10 - Day to Day operations of a Business
- Chapter 11 - Marketing of Solar Home Systems
- Chapter 12 - Sales Skills and Selling Solar Home Systems
- Chapter 13 - Simple Negotiating Skills
- Chapter 14 - After the sale: Customer Service
"keeping the customer happy"
- Chapter 15 - Growing your Business
- Chapter 16 - Further Learning
- Appendices

